HAVE YOUR SAY

You are always listening to your students, now is the time for you to be heard. The Survey is designed to gather the thoughts and feelings of all school staff... Your views are important and will inform the successful implementation of solutions. It will ensure the Ministry's way ahead and a better future for all.

HAVE YOUR SAY... your views will be kept confidential so you can be honest

HAVE YOUR SAY... we want to know how you feel about your job, how you manage and your thoughts on the education service

HAVE YOUR SAY... your views will go a long way in improving the conditions for teachers and students

HAVE YOUR SAY.... the survey is simple to complete and takes little time once you get started

HAVE YOUR SAY... the survey is going to help you in the long run

HAVE YOUR SAY... before it's too late. Deadline for submission of completed surveys is September 28th 2007. All teachers will receive individual packages.

The survey has been designed by the independent research organisation, MORI. All answers are anonymous and confidential and MORI will provide an objective and independent report on the results.
