NEWS RELEASE:

MINISTRY TO HOST SEA AWARD CEREMONY

The Ministry of Education is pleased to announce that it will be hosting an Award Ceremony to honour the top performers of the 2009 Secondary Entrance Assessment Examinations.

A total of 207 students will be recognised for their diligence and achievements at 2pm on Saturday 31st October, 2009 at the spacious Chaguanas North Secondary School.

The students, their parents and other invited guests, will be entertained by the diverse musical styles of the Alternative Quartet. This will be followed by two choral speaking pieces by students from the Chaguanas Government Primary School who will also have past students receiving awards during the formal ceremony.

The event will have two Master of Cermonies, the effervescent Debra Boucaud-Mason and the proficient Avion Crooks.

The guest speaker for the event is one of the President's Award winners for 2009, Chantal Cave, a past student of St. Joseph's Convent, Port-of Spain who is sure to captivate the attention of the awardees.
