Minister DeCoteau delivers feature address at Robert Village Hindu School Graduation

The Honourable Clifton DeCoteau, MP, Minister in the Ministry of Education delivered the feature address at the graduation ceremony for the Standard 5 students of the Chandreika Maharaj Robert Village Hindu School held on 29 June, 2010. He spoke from his own experience as a School Supervisor III, Southeastern Education District, in the Ministry of Education, attesting to the fact that children who participate in sports and other activities are more successful at written exams. He went on to explain that participation contributes to young students being well-rounded adults who are ready for the world and relevant responsibilities.
