NEWS RELEASE

5th January 2012

Tranquillity Secondary School

Classes at Tranquillity Secondary School resume on Monday 9th January 2012 for students of Forms One to Four and Form Six. Classes for Form Five students will resume on Monday 16th January.

Due to ongoing electrical repairs at the school, a temporary rotation system is in effect with students of each successive year group staying home for one week, starting with Form Five.

Evening classes of the NOSTT (National Open School of Trinidad and Tobago), which are held at the school, will resume on Monday 9th.

For further information please contact the Ministry's Communications Division at 628-1581.
