REQUEST FOR INFORMATION (RFI)

Electronic Textbooks (e-textbooks) in subject areas being taught at primary and secondary schools catering for all students, inclusive of those with special educational needs

The Ministry of Education (MOE) is seeking to introduce e-textbooks into the education system and recognises the significant role of Publishers/Authors in providing educational resources for students. In this regard, the MOE requests information on the availability of e-textbooks that are aligned to the primary and secondary schools' curricula, which cater for all students, inclusive of those with special educational needs.

Following the RFI, the MOE will issue a request for submissions for evaluation and recommendation. A listing of specific subject areas and relevant levels will also be provided.

Please refer to the link below to complete the attached form with the required details:
